The micro:bit is a great tool for teaching Digital Technologies in the classroom. In this workshop we’ll take you from displaying a smiley face through to line-following with a robot chassis and on to Dab Dab Revolution. Learn about how scalable this tool is for different year levels and outcomes.