Get Involved

The Nursing and Midwifery Leadership Conference is a must-attend event for current and future nursing and midwifery leaders, making the 2017 conference an ideal platform for your company to be seen and heard.

Some of the many benefits of participating in 2017 include opportunities to:
- Enhance your company profile in the industry and add value to your brand
- Introduce a new image
- Launch a new product or service to a ‘captive’ audience
- Grow and strengthen personal and direct relationships with existing clients and establish new contacts
- Gain direct access to key decision makers and your target market who are open, available and keen to meet suppliers
- Exposure through various conference marketing initiatives
- Demonstrate your commitment and engagement with the nursing and midwifery community.

By being involved, you will be supporting the continuous development of Western Australian nurses and midwives while gaining exposure amongst key decision makers from around the country.

We have a diverse range of partnership opportunities available as outlined in this proposal, each providing a valuable opportunity to showcase your company’s profile and reach out to the sector’s most influential. We look forward to the opportunity to work with you as we stage this important event and encourage you to consider the exposure we can offer your company.

What’s New?

Building on the successes of our 2013 and 2015 conferences, new packages have been added, providing organisations more opportunities for exposure than ever before. Our existing partnership and exhibition packages have also been revised, now with added benefits and more value for money.

The Conference

Celebrating the Why… this conference is aimed at both established nurse and midwife leaders and those seeking careers in this direction. The conference will stimulate and equip attendees with new ideas and tools for increasing effectiveness in healthcare leadership at any level.

Great nursing and midwifery leadership is integral to the creation and maintenance of a healthy and productive work environment and the provision of safe, quality health care.

Who will attend in 2017?

The 2017 Nursing and Midwifery Leadership Conference is expected to attract more than 250 delegates from across all levels. Local, national and international nurses and midwives from public, private, federally-funded and non-government sectors are invited.

MARKETING YOUR PARTICIPATION

Your partnership and support is publicised intensely before, during and after the conference. Some of the avenues we use are:

Online Marketing

Email Blasts • Regular email newsletters promoting program updates, key dates, featured speakers and our partners and exhibitors.

Conference Website • This will be the primary information point for everything conference-related. The website will be regularly updated with the latest news.

Social Media • Via our Facebook and Twitter pages which promotes interaction and discussion amongst delegates and stakeholders.

Electronic and Print Marketing

Advertisements • Including flyers and advertisements to be used at industry events and publications to stimulate interest and provide key event information.

Electronic Conference Handbook • Opportunity to have your company name, logo or advertisement displayed within the electronic Conference Handbook, which is often downloaded and kept as a memento by delegates.

Onsite Marketing

Conference Signage • Recognition at the registration desk, session rooms and within the exhibition area (subject to approval by the Conference Organisers).

Conference App • Used by all conference attendees as it allows them to browse conference sessions, create personalised schedules and view local maps. The application is available for iPhone and Android.

Partner Logos on Session Slides • Reinforce your commitment and support to all delegates during conference sessions.

Our aim is to offer a wide range of partnership packages that will help you meet your brand and networking objectives. We are more than happy to discuss tailored packages to suit your marketing strategies.
